www.southminsterchurch.org -262.547.5100. The church is experiencing something of a crisis in the pastorate system. Clergy morale is low, with pastors under attack as never before. An increasing number of involuntary pastoral terminations leave a lasting legacy of pain in many congregations. Facilitating Healthy Pastor - Congregation Relations is a workshop intended to help congregations address these problems. The Workshop will help you...Understand some basic concepts of family systems theory and apply them to congregational life; Manage Pastoral transitions more effectively and improve support systems for Pastors; Institutionalize healthy conflict procedures and understand "leadership through self-differentiation." Refocus on your congregation's mission and purpose rather than having energy drained by contentious issues.
