Did you read each name? Did you get dizzyed by the unending list of names and skip a few? Did you say a prayer for the grieving families and friends of each of these people whose lives have been taken or shattered by mass gun violence in this year alone? Did you remember the ongoing trauma and recovery of the 103 wounded survivors from these shootings? Did you take active steps to prevent this from happening again?

Why not?

I would appreciate hearing your thoughts and feelings on these issues. Here's one way to share.
