MARCH 22, 2020
4TH SUNDAY IN LENT

9:30-10AM  FELLOWSHIP TIME

If you log onto the Zoom meeting early, you’ll be able to see others logging on and we will be able to talk a bit.

Once the service begins at 10am, we will mute everyone so that there won’t be noise coming from different places. Unfortunately, because of everyone having different speeds of internet, reading together in unison as we would normally, won’t work well, so we invite you to read aloud at home, but we will leave the mute on for the congregation.

Zoom has an option to have a chat room going on in the side bar. We will not be using this except as a place to receive prayer requests. If you have a prayer request, please type it in the chat and we will read through them later in the service.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP  Eden Jensen

One:  God is in the water that restores our soul.

All:  And God is in the night when we lose our way.

One:  God is in today and tomorrow, raising up leaders, prophets and dreamers.

All:  And God is in the wilderness with us—every step of the way.

One:  So with confidence we declare—

All:  If God is in those spaces, then God is surely here.

One:  Let us worship the God of creation.

All:  Let us worship the God of wilderness spaces.
PRAYER OF CONFESSION       Rev. Sarah Walker Cleaveland

Jesus of Nazareth,

There are stories of you healing the blind all over scripture.

You were constantly opening people’s eyes.

So today we confess that we often choose to keep our eyes closed.

We turn away from injustice in our world,

worried you might ask us to work for change.

We close our eyes to our privilege,

because the truth is uncomfortable.

We avoid eye contact with those who are suffering to avoid identifying with their pain.

Forgive us when we fail to be your Church in the world.

Guide us from the depths of our wilderness into your light.

(Silent prayer)

Amen.
