

Pulpit Supply Guidelines and List

The Pulpit Supply List assists congregations in finding an individual to temporarily fill the pulpit for worship services. Pulpit Supply is intended as a Sunday-by-Sunday temporary relationship. If the church is intending to invite the same supply preacher for more than 3 consecutive weeks or enter into an ongoing relationship, Presbytery approval is required¹ through the Commission on Transitional Ministries (CTM).

What is the purpose of this list?

The worship leaders below have been approved by CTM. Utilizing ministers from our pulpit supply list or the lists of our denominational partners linked below does not require CTM permission.

While it is strongly encouraged that congregations utilize the approved Pulpit Supply List, sessions may invite ministers of other denominations to lead in worship occasionally with CTM approval.

Whether from this list or outside of this list, CTM approval is needed when the worship leader preaches 3 or more times in a month, or on a repeating basis.

Who May Serve Communion?

Only PC(USA) Ministers of Word & Sacrament, ruling elders authorized by the Presbytery to serve communion, and ministers from our “full communion partners” may serve communion (denoted below in bold and with an asterisk (*)). Other ecumenical partner ministers may administer the sacraments only with approval of CTM, or with the concurrence of CTM moderator(s) and one of the following staff: Stated Clerk, Presbytery Executive, or Presbytery Associate for Ministry Vitality.

Compensation

Supplying the pulpit involves significant preparation time by the supply preacher. Estimates of the time spent for one supply preaching date range from $\frac{3}{4}$ of a day to 1.5 days. Compensation for a supply preacher is \$150 for one service and an additional \$50 for two services, plus mileage reimbursement at the current IRS rate. Congregations should discuss ahead of time with the pulpit supply additional compensation for non-traditional technological services, such ¹ “When a congregation does not have a pastor, or while the pastor is unable to perform her or his duties, the session, with the approval of presbytery, may obtain the services of a minister of the Word and Sacrament, candidate, or ruling elder in a temporary pastoral relationship.” G-2.0504b.
