

Pulpit Supply Guidelines and List

The Pulpit Supply List assists congregations in finding an individual to temporarily fill the pulpit for worship services. Pulpit Supply is intended as a Sunday-by-Sunday temporary relationship. If the church is intending to invite the same supply preacher for more than 3 consecutive weeks or enter into an ongoing relationship, Presbytery approval is required¹ through the Commission on Transitional Ministries (CTM).

What is the purpose of this list?

The worship leaders below have been approved by CTM. Utilizing ministers from our pulpit supply list or the lists of our denominational partners linked below does not require CTM permission. While it is strongly encouraged that congregations utilize the approved Pulpit Supply List, sessions may invite ministers of other denominations to lead in worship occasionally with CTM approval.

Whether from this list or outside of this list, CTM approval is needed when the worship leader preaches 3 or more times in a month, or on a repeating basis.

What Can Be Expected

When contacting the pulpit supply, indicate their responsibilities, i.e.

- Sermon title & text
- Additional scriptures
- Prayers
- Children's sermon
- Hymns
- Additional bulletin information
- Communion, baptism, new member, etc.
- Bulletin deadline & contact persons.

Be sure to specify the time of worship, directions to site, key contact information and any other helpful information such as coffee hour, meals, etc. Arrange for a person who will greet them and answer any questions.

Who May Serve Communion

Only PC(USA) Ministers of Word & Sacrament, ruling elders authorized by the Presbytery to serve communion, and ministers from our "full communion partners" may serve communion (denoted below in bold and with an asterisk (*)). Other ecumenical partner ministers may administer the sacraments only with approval of CTM, or with the concurrence of CTM moderator(s) and one of the following staff: Stated Clerk, Presbytery Executive, or Presbytery Associate for Ministry Vitality.

Compensation

Supplying the pulpit involves significant preparation time by the supply preacher. Estimates of the time spent for one supply preaching date range from $\frac{3}{4}$ of a day to 1.5 days. Compensation for a supply preacher is \$150 for one service and an additional \$50 for two services, plus mileage reimbursement at the current IRS rate. Congregations should discuss ahead of time with the pulpit supply additional compensation for non-traditional technological services, such as recording or editing or online worship. (See KEY at the bottom for description of electronic worship icons.) Ordinarily, compensation is given on the day which services are rendered. If this is not possible, payment should be made within the following week. Within the week following the service, a letter of appreciation is sent to the pulpit supply from the session of the church.

¹ "When a congregation does not have a pastor, or while the pastor is unable to perform her or his duties, the session, with the approval of presbytery, may obtain the services of a minister of the Word and Sacrament, candidate, or ruling elder in a temporary pastoral relationship." G-2.0504b.
