

Enough

March 20, 2024

Lisa Heckman

Dear Friends,

I'm away at a conference this week, so I offer you a poem from Steve Garnaas-Holmes.

May you all be blessed as we head into Palm/Passion Sunday and Holy Week.

Enough

God, I do not have enough.
Enough to save the world,
even to help others,
sometimes even enough
to manage myself.

Receive my inadequacy.
Let it be in your hands, not mine.
Let my lack be space for you.

Open my eyes to see in every failure,
in every shortcoming, your grace.

Beloved, mindful not of what I lack but what I have
– that you have given me,
I offer you myself.
By your grace it will be enough.
