Stated Supply Job Description – North Lima Presbyterian Church, southern WI

Compensation: As approved by the Presbytery of Milwaukee compensation standards for 2019, including 15-hours a week, IRS mileage reimbursement, paid vacation and continuing education and professional expenses.

North Lima Presbyterian Church is nestled in a rural, agricultural setting, tucked between the communities of Whitewater and Milton, with the larger city of Janesville a mere twenty minutes away. Within the tri-city area there is something for everyone, from youth to retiree, in entertainment, athletics, arts, food, shopping and FUN! Whitewater is home to the University of Wisconsin – Whitewater, Milton is a growing community, home to Blackhawk Technical College education and training center, and Janesville is a bustling city with restaurants, manufacturing and locally run businesses. Outdoor activities abound with bike and hiking paths, parks, sports venues, water options and much, much more. An hour in the car takes you to Madison, Rockford or beyond for the explorer in you!

Members and friends of the North Lima Presbyterian congregation are self-described as: warm, friendly, caring, loyal and down-to-earth people who value Bible-centered faith-building in a family-friendly environment. Our quaint, country church represents over 160 years of memories, traditions, struggles, and the growth of multiple generations of hard-working, rural community members. Without fuss or fanfare, a need is met, a helping hand is provided, and a prayer is lifted. Our mission statement puts it nicely...“North Lima Presbyterian Church (PCUSA) honors the past, lives in the present, and embraces the future, through the energy of Jesus Christ.” This group stands more on tradition and creative resourcefulness than format, because we are all servants at the core and doing good does not require a committee meeting. Mentorship and teaching is informal and happens weekly, from the youngest (currently elementary-school age, to the most mature (over 90). In 2018, Sunday worship attendance averaged 23. As a child of God, you are welcomed!
