Social Witness Statements

“God sends the Church to work for justice in the world: exercising its power for the common good; dealing honestly in personal and public spheres; seeking dignity and freedom for all people...” — Book of Order, W-5.0304

A "social witness statement" is defined as a statement by the Presbytery arising out of the need or call to address a social justice issue(s). It usually takes a position on issues promoting social righteousness and includes a call to action. This form of statement is typically addressed to the public as well as to the Presbytery ministers of Word and Sacrament and congregation members. Because such statements speak on behalf of the Presbytery, they must be approved by a majority of the commissioners in attendance at a regular or special meeting of the Presbytery Assembly.

Notwithstanding the above language, the Moderator of Presbytery, the Moderator of Council, the Stated Clerk, and the Presbytery Executive may sign onto, support, and/or be an official presence in a situation or crisis where the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) General Assembly has already created a policy, stance, and/or call to action. The designated Presbytery leaders are also able to speak (if invited) at a prayer vigil that includes a call to action that is in resonance with the General Assembly.

Pastoral Statements

“God sends the Church to show compassion in the world: feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, visiting prisoners, freeing captives, sheltering the homeless, welcoming strangers, comforting those who mourn, and being present with all who are in need. These acts of compassion, done corporately or individually, are the work of the Church as the body of Christ. We are called to minister directly to people’s immediate hurts and needs.” -- Book of Order, W-5.0303

A "pastoral statement," sometimes referred to as a "pastoral letter," is a statement by the Presbytery to Presbytery ministers of Word and Sacrament and congregation members as well as to the public. It is intended to respond with compassion, care, and counsel to both the spiritual and corporal needs of the body or of the community.

Because such statements are usually urgent and timely in need, they do not come before the Presbytery Assembly, but must be agreed to and signed by the Moderator of Presbytery, the Moderator of Council, the Stated Clerk, and the Presbytery Executive.

Personal Statements

Statements from the Presbytery Executive or an ecclesial officer of the Presbytery to Presbytery ministers of Word and Sacrament and congregation members that do not meet any of the above process requirements are presumed to be the statement of the author alone, and not of the Presbytery. The author should use care and discretion in a personal statement to further the peace, unity, and purity of the Church and to show the love and justice of Jesus Christ. 808 CHAPTER 15: AMENDMENT AND SUSPENSION OF MANUAL OF OPERATION

813 Parts of this Manual, except the chapter to amend, may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the
